

Winter 2017

Phorum

Winter Good News

Presentations | Publications | The Job Hunt

Conferences & Workshops

Sara Parks attended the Bruce Gronbeck Rhetoric Society Midwest Winter Workshop in Iowa City. Her RPC colloquium is Feb. 15, and she has been accepted to an RSA Institute Workshop next summer.

Tom Ballard, Derek Hanson, Lauren Malone, & Bryan Lutz will be presenting with Quinn Warnick at Computers and Writing this June. This will be one of two presentations for Tom.

Mariah Kemp will be presenting on multimodal meeting minutes at ATTW

Vince Robles will be participating in the ATTW Research Workshop "Quantitative Content Analysis" this year.

Sam Harvey's proposal was accepted to present at Computers and Writing in Findlay, Ohio. They also had proposals accepted to Crossings Conferences in Reno, Nevada, and the Higher Education Teaching and Learning Conference in Scotland, UK.

Publications

TOM BALLARD, KATHY ROSE, BRYAN LUTZ

"Learning and Reflecting with ISUComm ePortfolios: Exploring Technological and Curricular Places", was published in The Journal of Interactive Technology and Pedagogy on November 28th. You can read it here: <https://jitp.commons.gc.cuny.edu/learning-and-reflecting-with-isucomm-eportfolios/>.

ANGIE MALLORY

Her proposal for her book chapter "#RhetOps" in the "Rhetoric of War" collection was accepted. The collection explores the intersection of rhetoric and military operations. She was also invited by Geographical Services (D.C.) to contribute to a paper on narratives.

DANIEL HENKE

"The Absurdity of Acceptance through Belief: Meursault's Dismissal of God and the Court System in The Stranger" is being published in The Journal of Camus Studies 2018.

SAM HARVEY

Sam Harvey's proposal was accepted to "Teaching with a Disability: A Routledge Reader" where they will be co-writing with Alyssa Hillary on using alternative and augmentative communication (AAC) while teaching. Also, their proposal was accepted for the book anthology: "Horror and Dark Fantasy: Challenging Genres" where they critically analyzed Frankenstein from a disability studies perspective.

Job Search Updates

Matt Baker

Matt Baker has accepted an assistant professor position at Brigham Young University in the English and Linguistics department. He will be teaching editing and publishing, beginning in August. Congratulations, Matt!

Angie Mallory

Angie Mallory began her position as an Asymmetric Warfare Research Analyst in Washington D.C. this past December. She is happy to report that she and the kids are settling in just fine. Her dissertation happens to fit with a project currently in development with the Army, and she has revised the proposal to fit her new military audience. Congrats and good luck, Angie!

Vince Robles

Vince Robles has accepted an assistant professor position at the University of North Texas. He will be teaching technical communication, beginning in August. Congratulations, Vince!

Next Steps

Degree/Research Progress

Jill Grauman – ABD; Working on revising a term paper to turn it into an article. Good luck, Jill!

Bremen Vance, George Standifer, Phil Gallagher, & Lauren Malone – Passed portfolio review.

Sam Harvey was invited to join the executive board for the Graduate Research Network, they will be the co-webmaster for their site

Phorum Events

Meeting: Friday, Feb. 10 @ 8:30 AM
Grad Connections: Friday, Feb. 10 @ 12 PM
Writing Retreat: Friday, Feb. 17 @ 1PM
Speaker Series: Thursday, Feb. 23 with Dr. Mark Zachary Questions? Email us at phorumrpc@iastate.edu

on the cover

The Lecture Room

Photograph by Papanooms